Obstacle Clinic Details:

- Riders are expected to have basic control of their horse, including the ability to walk, trot, turn, and stop their horse. Clinics may have up to 20 horses; riders should be comfortable riding in large groups and in pairs. Horses participating in the clinic should have some out-of-arena experience and be free of dangerous vices (i.e. kicking).
- Current Coggins and Rabies certificates are required. Please show papers to the Host Farm office prior to unloading.
- Boots and protective headgear are required. Balance of attire is discretionary.
- Food and drinks will be available to purchase.
- All entrants must sign liability and photo release forms. If under 18, a parent or guardian must sign.

Cancellation Policy:

- If Gentle Dove Farm or Host Farm cancels the clinic, all payment received will be refunded within 30 days.
- Rider Cancellation: refunds will only be given for entry and stabling if entry can be filled from the wait list, less $30 non-refundable office fee payable to Gentle Dove Farm. No changes or refunds after 9 am on Aug 5, 2010; wait list expires at that time.

RELEASE AND HOLD HARMLESS/PHOTO AGREEMENT: The Undersigned assumes the unavoidable risks inherent in all horse-related activities, including but not limited to bodily injury and physical harm to horse, rider and spectator.

*In consideration, therefore, for the privilege of riding and or working around horses at the Host Farm, the Undersigned does hereby agree to hold harmless and indemnify Gentle Dove Farm, Joann Long & all assistants. Further the Undersigned releases them from any liability or responsibility for accident, damage, injury, illness, or death to the Undersigned or to any horse owned by the Undersigned or to any family member or spectator accompanying the Undersigned on the premises.
